Hall of Fame

~ Bud Amodio ~

Class of 1974

Bud Amodio was the 1st state qualifier in Northwest wrestling history. He won his first Senate League title in 1973 at 98 lbs. He helped the team to win the Beaver Local Invitational, the Senate League tournament, and place 13th at the District Tournament. Bud co-captained the legendary 1974 Northwest team and helped to guide them to a ninth place finish at the State meet. This team also went on to win the Northwest Invitational, the Conner, Kentucky Invitational, and the Sectional and District tournaments. It was the 1st undefeated team of all of Northwest sports (10-0). Bud went undefeated in dual meets his senior year. He also won the quick pin award and picked up his second Senate League title at 98 lbs. He helped to guide the Indians to the Senate League title as well. He capped off his stellar career by reaching the final eight of the State meet. Today Bud and his wife, Deborah, reside in Tarpon Springs, Florida and own a construction and roofing company.
